

Corporate profile

TPA Horwath is one of the leading tax and audit companies in Austria, and Central and Eastern Europe. The TPA Horwath Group currently has 11 offices in four provinces of Austria, and a further 14 branches in the key regions of Bulgaria, Croatia, the Czech Republic, Hungary, Poland, Romania, Serbia, Slovakia and Slovenia.

TPA Horwath provides premium consultancy services for international groups, medium-sized enterprises, associations, foundations and private individuals. These range from national and international tax consultancy through to auditing, and management and corporate finance consultancy. The Group's experts specialise in fields including real property, start-ups, business reorganisations, succession planning, corporate legal structures, and labour, social and pension law.

History of the TPA Horwath Group

Since its foundation in Langenlois, Lower Austria in 1979, the company has grown rapidly. The head count has risen from 65 in 1990 to more than 960 today. Expansion into neighbouring Central and Eastern European countries began in the early nineties. In all seven CEE countries where TPA Horwath currently operates the main focus of consultancy is on real property, banking/leasing, energy, manufacturing and trade.

TPA Horwath now ranks among the major Austrian players in its industry in the CEE region. Customers have the option of German language consultancy at all locations.

International network

Since 1995 TPA Horwath has been a member of Crowe Horwath International - a global association of independent professional practices of public accountants, auditors and management consultants. With over 140 member firms, 550 offices and 26,000 employees, Crowe Horwath International is one of the world's top ten consultancy networks.
